TO SCHOOLS AND COLLEGES

The Science News-Letter is an ideal classroom aid to science teaching. Every student should have his own copy. The cost of ten copies or more mailed to the same address each week is sufficiently low to enable this magazine to be used as an auxiliary text-book.

Testimonials from School and College Teachers

"I enjoy and appreciate the weekly News-Letter. I have had it several years, and it has become a very important part of my mental pabulum."—Lorenze M. Newman, Chippewa Falls, Wis.

"I would discontinue my daily dinner rather than my subscription to this publication."—F. R. Fancher, Redondo Beach, Calif.

"I especially like the scientific classics."—Prof. H. S. Conard, Grinnell College.

"I have subscribed for the Science News-Letter so I will get your 'dope' promptly. You certainly are doing a fine bit of work and we are indebted to you greatly."—Prof. Wm. McPherson, Ohio State University.

"It looks good to me, and it will to others as well."—H. S. Fisher, Gary, Ind.

"The Science News-Letter comes regularly each week and is eagerly inspected."—George M. Turner, Riverside (Calif.) Junior College.

"The News-Letter is to me astonishingly good. (After reading it I went right down the cellar and studied my steam boiler, and found that I was wasting coal, thank you!)"—John Cotton Dana, Free Public Library of Newark.
