EUROPE ON A SHOESTRING

IT probably costs much less than you think to see Europe. For one thing there are many low cost tours originating in Europe, the kind that economical Europeans buy for themselves. Some are as low as $5 a day for hotels, meals, sightseeing etc.

The book that describes these tours and many other ways to see Europe as nearly on a shoestring as possible is Europe on a Shoestring.

Here are facts galore on—

What to see from one end of Europe to the other, including England, France, Italy, Switzerland, Austria, Scandinavia, etc.

When it's cheaper to rent a car than take your own; how to buy and sell a car overseas. How to get the most for your money when going via rail, bus, sightseeing coach, etc. How to save on foreign exchange. This part of the book alone will pay for its cost many times over.

In short, it covers everything you want to know—from what to see to how to see it, with facts, facts, facts. There's a handy guide to "How to Say It in 7 European Languages" (that section alone is also worth the price of the book). Of course, it's specific about passports, visas, customs here and in Europe, clothing to take, etc.

"No traveler can afford to go to Europe without this book," writes a travel agent. "Your book saved me enough last year to bring home lots of gifts," writes a woman. "The intelligent traveler's vade mecum to Europe," says the French Government travel office.

For only $2, you get this money-saving book, with all its help on seeing Europe comfortably and at low cost. Use coupon.

WHERE TO STAY, EAT, AND SHOP IN WESTERN EUROPE
—and what to see

Where in Europe can you get the best U. S. style meals? What's the best way to see the Shakespeare country, the lake district, or Scotland, or Wales?

In Paris how would you plan a day's sightseeing to bring you to Notre Dame, the big boulevards, the Left Bank, and all else that Paris is famous for? Which night-clubs are really for men only? How would you see the famous chateaux of France, or get the most out of your trip to the Riviera, or visit the Basque country?

What are the three best sightseeing trips out of Madrid? How would you see the best of Denmark on one circular trip? Which is Germany's oldest city, once the home of Roman emperors, and how can you visit it on a tour of the Rhineland?

In short, how will you arrange your own sightseeing in Europe? Will you try to remember hundreds of exciting bits of information like the answers to these and hundreds other questions? Will you spend hours figuring out how best to work in all the things you want to see, where best to eat, which are the attractive hotels, which shops should be visited—and always wonder if you're missing something important?

There's an easier, quicker way. Let Norman Ford guide you through the pages of his 100,000 word book Where to Say, Eat, and Shop in Western Europe—and What to See.

This is the guide that shows you where to find the Europe you'll always treasure having seen—not only the great sights for which Europe is famous but also the little known places where you find the best of Old Europe. This book is packed with day-by-day itineraries that take you to all that's worth seeing in the major cities and elsewhere in each country.

This, too, is the guide that leads you to the hotels with charm, the restaurants where good food is the chief consideration, and the shops where you get real values. 200 travel experts helped Norman Ford ferret out these real finds where you get the best value for your money, whether you travel on a budget or deluxe or in-between. This book covers every country you can visit from England to Turkey, including France, Italy, Switzerland, Spain, Germany, Austria, the Low Countries, Scandinavia, etc.

And of course this is also a guide to saving money, for by knowing just where to go for each meal and each night's stay, you'll be spending less while enjoying better meals and stopping at better hotels than if you just went blind. Reader after reader has written Norman Ford, "I've saved the price of your book, and more, every day I was in Europe."

Price only $2—and it's a big book with plenty of maps, lots of solid information, and your guarantee of a perfect vacation in Europe.

OFF-THE-BEATEN PATH

These Are America's Own Bargain Paradises

Where to Retire or Vacation

... at What Look Like Prewar Prices

In Off-the-Beaten Path, the latest book by Norman Ford, you read of island paradises aplenty in the United States and Canada, of art colonies (artists search for picturesque locations where costs are low!), of areas with almost a perfect climate or with flowers on every side.

Here are the real U.S.A.-brand Shangri-Las made for the man or woman who's had enough of crowds. Here, too, are unspoiled seashore villages, tropics like islands, and dozens of other spots just about perfect for your retirement or vacation at some of the lowest prices you've heard of since the gone-forever prewar days. And for good measure you also read about the low cost paradises in Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

You can be sure that Off-the-Beaten Path names the low cost Florida retirement and vacationing towns, the best values in Texas, the Southwest, California, the South and East, Canada—and a dozen other areas which the crowds have not yet discovered:

- That undiscovered region where winters are as warm as Miami Beach's yet costs can be two-thirds less.
- That island that looks like Hawaii yet is 2000 miles nearer (no expensive sea or air trip to get there).
- France's only remaining outpost in this part of the world—completely surrounded by Canadian territory . . . or a village more Scottish than Scotland or age-old Spanish hamlets right in our own U. S. where relaxation is the order of the day.
- That remarkable town where a fee of 3¢ a day gives you an almost endless round of barbecues, musicals, concerts, picnics, pot luck suppers, smorgasbord dinners, and a fine arts program.

Off-the-Beaten Path is a big book filled with facts that open the way to a different kind of retirement or vacation made all the more attractive by the rock-bottom prices. About 100,000 words and plenty of pictures. Yet it costs only $2.

BARGAIN PARADISES

OF THE WORLD Mexico • Majorca
West Indies • Peru

Do you know where to find an island right near the U. S. so nearly like Tahiti in appearance, beauty, and color even the natives say it was made from a rainbow? (And that costs here are so low you cannot only reach it but also stay a while for hardly more than you'd spend at a resort in the U. S.?)

Do you know where to find the world's best mountain hideaways or its most dazzling surf-washed coastal resorts, where even today you can live for a song?

Do you know where it costs less to spend a while, the surroundings are pleasant, and the climate well nigh perfect in such places as Mexico, the West Indies, Peru, France, along the Mediterranean, and in the world's other low cost wonderlands?

Or if you've thought of more distant places, do you know which of the South Sea Islands are as unspoiled today as in Conrad's day? Or which is the one spot world travelers call the most beautiful place on earth, where two can live in sheer luxury, with a retinue of servants for only $175 a month?

Bargain Paradises of the World, a big book with about 100 photos and 4 maps, proves that if you can afford a vacation in the U. S., the rest of the world is closer than you think. Authors Norman D. Ford and William Redgrave, honorary vice presidents of the British Globe Trotters Club, show that the American dollar is respected all over the world and buys a lot more than you'd give it credit for.

Yes, if you're planning to retire, this book shows that you can live for months on end in the world's wonderlands for hardly more than you'd spend for a few months at home. Or if you've dreamed of taking time out for a real rest, this book shows how you can afford it.

In any case, when it can cost as little as $24.50 from the U. S. border to reach some of the world's Bargain Paradises, it's time you learned how much you can do on the money you've got. Send now for Bargain Paradises of the World. Price $1.50. Use coupon to order.

Only $134 to Buenos AIRES?

If you know ALL the ways of reaching foreign countries, you don't need fantastic sums of money in order to travel. You could spend $550-$1000 on a one-way luxury steamer ticket to Buenos Aires, or you can get there for $134 in fares via bus, rail, and boat through colorful Mexico, Panama, Colombia, Peru, the Andes, etc.

You could spend $5000 on a luxury cruise around the world or under $1000 by connecting steamers. You can island-hop around the West Indies via plane for several hundred dollars—or see the islands more leisurely by motor schooner for much, much less. There's hardly a place on earth you can't reach for less if you know ALL the travel ways.

Norman Ford, founder of the Globetrotters Club and America's top expert on low cost travel, has gathered into one handy book dozens upon dozens of specific travel routings to all parts of the world—Mexico, South America, Europe, Africa and the Mediterranean, the Far East, Australia, the South Seas, etc.—so that you can see more at prices you can afford by combining freighter, liner, rail, bus, plane, and other competing services.

Over and over again he proves that you can travel now—that you don't have to wait for some far-off day when you've saved much more money.

$1.50 brings you his big guide, "How to Travel Without Being Rich." Get it now to discover how much of the world you can see now.

MEXICO | Where two can live (and vacation)
More cheaply than one (IN THE U.S.A.)

MEXICO is the land of travel values, where prices look like ours way back in 1935. With Norman Ford, founder of the world famous Globetrotters Club, to guide you, you can really see Mexico as well as Guatemala, Panama and other lands in Central America at so low a cost you can get there and back again, as well as visit for a while, yet spend less than you would for an ordinary vacation back home.

His big book, The Fiesta Lands—Through Mexico and Central America on a Shoestring, details full sightseeing plans for exactly the time you can spare—whether it's a weekend, two weeks, or longer. He makes sure you know how to get around easily and quickly by auto, rail, bus, ship, or plane, as you choose to go. Always, too, he makes sure you get real value for your money, and he tells you just where to go for the real finds in hotels, restaurants, and shops.

With his help you'll stop at hotels with gardenia-filled swimming pools; you'll know where to find low priced tropical resorts and luxury hotels at low, low prices. You'll select the hotels with 1st class dining rooms (do you want seafood, French pastries, smorgasbord—or do you want Swiss, Italian, American, or Spanish cooking?). You'll find places set amidst orchards or coconut palms, or overlooking a long tropical beach. You'll find city hotels built around flowered patios, you'll know where to dance, nightclub, find excellent fishing.

Through his sound advice you never overspend, travel blind, or waste your time. So sound a book, so packed with facts, Esso Touring Service, the governments below the border and thousands of Americans who have found it the practical guide to these lands of real travel values—all advise you to read it, study it, and take it with you. Price $2.

Are You Going to the West Indies? BERMUDA? NASSAU?

NOW, with the help of William Redgrave's huge new book Islands in the Wind, you can have your West Indies vacation—see it all, do it all—yet spend no more than would a long-time resident of the islands who knows "all the ropes."

Over and over again William Redgrave shows that a West Indies vacation needn't be expensive—not if you follow his many tips on how to cut sightseeing costs and where to find the charming, comfortable lower cost hotels which island-wise residents know about. He shows you the lowest cost ways of island hopping, tells where to go for the best shopping buys (you're going to spend money on souvenirs and other purchases anyway—so why not know where you can get the best workmanship and the best prices?). Through his help you know just where to go for meals, where to find the best places to swim, dance, and night-club, and the many tricks island residents know for making one dollar do the job that only two dollars can do for travelers coming here blind.

Islands in the Wind covers every single island of importance from Bermuda way down to Trinidad, that incredible British colony where the calypso was born, Indian mosques pierce the sky, and brown women from Malaya wear flowered sarongs. This big book gives you the information you want about Nassau, Cuba, the free ports in the Virgin Islands, Jamaica, the British, Dutch, and French West Indies.

Many maps, a huge book—and only $2.50, which you can save many times over even as you plan your trip.

How Much You've Missed in New England!

DO you know where to find all its magnificent mountains, its best preserved colonial villages and its living reproductions of historic towns? Do you know how best to visit its deep canyons (which New Englanders call "gaps"), its world-famous national park, its maritime villages (including that living museum where you can roam the decks of a down-east square-rigged ship)? Can you link them all in one circular tour of New England? Do you know where to find the best fishing, hunting, swimming, the finest vacation spots in the mountains or at the beach? Where to find the best accommodations at the price you want to pay?

On past trips we've all missed something we now regret not having known about. Don't let that happen again. William Redgrave's big book ALL OF NEW ENGLAND will help you find everything worth seeing in these history-filled, scenic states.

As detailed and complete as all Harian books, it costs only $1.50.

A LOWER COST WAY TO TRAVEL

If you don't quite run to the deluxe liners, go via passenger carrying freighter, the lower cost way to travel without dressing up.

For no more than you'd spend at a resort, you can cruise to Rio and Buenos Aires. Or through the Canal to New York or California. Or to the West Indies or along the St. Lawrence to French Canada. In fact, trips to almost everywhere probably cost less than you expect.

And what accommodations you get: large rooms with beds (not bunks), probably a private bath, and lots of good food.

"Travel Routes Around the World" names hundreds of lines, tells where they go, how long they take, how much they cost. Once you see this book you will understand why hundreds of thousands of travelers all over the world have used it to get the facts they want about passenger carrying freighters, the lower cost way to travel.

$1 brings you this jam-packed book complete with six pages of maps, a directory of almost bargain-priced overseas services, etc.

HOW TO TRAVEL— And Get Paid For It

There's a traveling job waiting for you somewhere—on a ship, with an airline, in overseas branches of American firms, in foreign firms in foreign countries—even exploring if you're adventurous.

The full story of what job you can fill and the pay you will receive is in Norman Ford's new book, HOW TO GET A JOB THAT TAKES YOU TRAVELING. Whether you're male or female, young or old—whether you hanker for a lifetime career that takes you traveling or whether you just want to roam the world for a short year or two, in this big book you'll find the facts you need.

You learn all about jobs in travel agencies (including jobs as tour conductors), in importing and exporting concerns, with mining and construction companies. Here's the story of jobs in the Red Cross and the UN organizations, how doctors get jobs on ships, the almost-sure way for a young girl to land a job as an airline hostess, the wonderful travel opportunities for anyone who knows stenography.

Of course the book is complete with names and addresses, and with full details about all the preparations you must make. You learn which countries to head for, the cautions to observe, even where it's perfectly possible to write from your own home for a job overseas.

"Can a man or woman still work his or her way around the world today?" Norman Ford asks in this book, as you might ask today. And he replies in 75,000 words of facts, "The answer is still a very definite Yes!" Price $1.50.
