Passenger-Carrying FREIGHTERS Are the Secret of Low Cost Travel

Yes, for no more than you'd spend at a resort, you can take a never-to-be-forgotten cruise to Rio and Buenos Aires. Or through the West Indies or along the St. Lawrence River to French Canada. In fact, trips to almost everywhere are within your means.

And what accommodations you get: large rooms with beds (not bunks), probably a private bath, lots of good food and plenty of relaxation as you speed from port to port.

Depending upon how fast you want to go, a round the world cruise can be yours for as little as $250-$300 a month. And there are shorter trips. Fast, uncrowded voyages to England, France, the Mediterranean; two or three week vacations up and down the Pacific Coast or elsewhere. Name the port and the chances are you can find it listed in Travel Routes Around the World. This is the book that names the lines, tells where they go, how much they charge, briefly describes accommodations. Hundreds of thousands of travelers all over the world swear by it. Travel editors and travel writers say "To learn how to travel for as little as you'd spend at a resort get Travel Routes Around the World."

It's yours for just $1, and the new 110-page 1965 edition includes practically every passenger carrying service starting from or going to New York, Canada, New Orleans, the Pacific Coast, Mexico, South America, England, France, the Mediterranean, Africa, the Indies, Australia, the South Seas, Japan, Hawaii, etc. There's a whole section called "How to See the World at Low Cost."

A big $1 worth, especially as it can open the way to more travel than you ever thought possible. For your copy, simply fill out coupon.

FABULOUS MEXICO Where Everything Costs Less THE LAND OF RETIREMENT AND VACATION BARGAINS—THAT'S MEXICO

Where you can build a modern home for $4500 and an American retirement income looks like a fortune. It's the land where your vacation money can buy double or more what it might back home—provided you know where to go for Mexico's best values.

Norman Ford's big book Fabulous Mexico—Where Everything Costs Less tells you exactly where to get all of this country's best vacation and retirement values, where you can live like a prince on what you might just get along on in the U.S.A.

Norman Ford knows Mexico from north to south, from east to west, and he takes you to vacation and retirement areas that look more like the South Seas than Tahiti itself; to whole sections of just perfect weather where it's like June all year round; plus resort after resort, towns, cities, and what not else where you'll have a vacation to remember at a cost so low it could seem unbelievable.

If you want a delightful retirement area with plenty of Americans around to talk to, he leads you to all the principal retirement towns, as well as dozens of little known, perhaps even more delightful areas, where costs are way far down, there's plenty to do and meeting people is easy. Always, he shows you modern, flower-bedecked hotels and inns that charge hardly half of what you might expect to spend in even such a land of vacation and retirement bargains as Mexico.

There's a great deal more besides: everything from exploring ancient pyramids as old as Egypt's to finding fabulous fishing. If you might want to share in the high interest rates Mexican banks pay or to buy equally high-earning real estate or start a business of your own, this detailed guide to a fabulous land tells you what you must do to start your money earning so much more than in the U.S.

Fabulous Mexico—Where Everything Costs Less opens up Mexico to you. It's a big book, yet it costs only $1.50. So send for yours today.

WHERE TO RETIRE OR VACATION —at what look like prewar prices

Off-the-Beaten Path—
These Are America's Own Bargain Paradieses

In Off-the-Beaten Path, the best-selling book by Norman Ford, you read of island paradises aplenty in the United States and Canada, of art colonies (artists search for picturesque locations where costs are low!), of areas with almost a perfect climate or with flowers on every side.

Here are the real U.S.A.-brand Shangri-Las made for the man or woman who's had enough of crowds. Here, too, are unspoiled seashore villages, tropics like islands, and dozens of other spots just about perfect for your retirement or vacation at some of the lowest prices you've heard of since the gone-for-ever prewar days. And for good measure you also read about the low-cost paradises in Hawaii, the Virgin Islands, and Puerto Rico.

You can be sure that Off-the-Beaten Path names the low-cost Florida retirement and vacationing towns, the best values in Texas, the Southwest, California, the South and East, Canada—and a dozen other areas which the crowds have not yet discovered:

- That undiscovered region where winters are as warm as Miami Beach's yet costs can be two-thirds less.
- That island that looks like Hawaii yet is 2000 miles nearer (no expensive sea or air trip to get there).
- France's only remaining outpost in this part of the world—completely surrounded by Canadian territory . . . or a village more Scottish than Scotland or age-old Spanish hamlets right in our own U.S. where no one ever heard of nervous tension or the worries of a modern day life.
- That remarkable town where a fee of 3¢ a day gives you an almost endless round of barbecues, musicals, concerts, picnics, pot luck suppers, smorgasbord dinners, and a fine arts program.

Off-the-Beaten Path is a big book filled with facts that open the way to a different kind of retirement or vacation made all the more attractive by the rock-bottom prices. About 100,000 words and plenty of pictures. Yet it costs only $2.

What to See in ALL AMERICA

—in the U.S.A., Canada, and Mexico and all the way to the Panama Canal

This 100,000 word book helps you explore every sight-filled corner in all America. From Alaska to Florida, from Labrador to California, from the Mexican border to the Panama Canal, it shows you all that's outstanding in the U.S.A., Canada, and all the other countries on our entire continent—countries which you can reach more easily than you probably thought.

Whether you drive or would rather leave your car behind, it details the byways which reveal so much more of America and get you to interesting places most people never see. It makes sure you always know exactly where to go, what to see.

If your eyes are on Maine or Texas; on Florida or Arizona or California; on Niagara Falls or the Grand Canyon; on Yellowstone or Yosemite; if you want to visit New York City or Washington, Chicago or Los Angeles, this book shows you the most interesting ways to get there from your home and it helps you see all of them with knowledge and understanding. If you want to get to out-of-the-way places, it shows you where to find the Eskimo country, Hudson Bay posts, etc. You can drive most of the way, yet where the roads stop, it helps you continue by ship and rail to still more unusual country.

For trips below the border, it shows the most sight-filled ways to all that makes Mexico so exciting to visit. Or do you want to go on to Guatemala's fabulous Indian country; to El Salvador, Honduras, Nicaragua, Costa Rica, Panama? They're yours by car, or you can go by low cost scenic motor coach or rail.

To see all the grandeur of America as you've probably never before explored your own country and her neighbors, make sure that you have your copy of What to See in All America. One hundred thousand words long, yet it costs only $2. Why not get your copy now?

WILL YOUR NEXT VACATION REALLY BE SOMETHING TO TALK ABOUT?

The surest way to guarantee a new, different, and exciting vacation is to learn the hundreds of things you can do and the places you can visit on the money you want to spend.

Norman Ford, founder of the world-famous Globetrotters Club, tells you about them in his book on today's most exciting American vacations. This is the man who has spent a lifetime searching for the ways to get more for your money in vacations and travel.

IN HIS BIG BOOK YOU LEARN

- about low cost summer paradises, farm vacations, vacations on far-off islands, on boats drifting down lazy streams while you fish.
- about vacations at world-famous beaches, under palm and eucalyptus trees, in government-subsidized vacation resorts, in Indian country, along rugged coastlines, on ships and by rail.
- about dude ranches you can afford; about places to paint, write, or find the big music festivals.
- about low cost sailing ship cruises, houseboat vacations, the national parks, fantastically low cost mountain wonderlands, and dozens upon dozens of other unusual, different, and exciting vacation possibilities.
- even where to find an unknown French island not too far from New York, where you can buy French perfumes, Paris-made handbags and gloves at just about half the U. S. prices (and even Swiss watches for less than in Switzerland).

Of course, Norman Ford knows where to get real vacation bargains in all America. At no time does he ask you to spend a lot of money to enjoy yourself, no matter how really different and exciting is the vacation you choose through his experienced advice. Always, he tells you the many things you can do within your budget and how to get more for your money.

Remember, a good vacation does not have to be expensive. Norman Ford's book, TODAY'S BEST BUYS IN AMERICAN VACATIONS, the guide to exciting vacations all over America, is a fact-jammed catalog of the hundreds of stimulating vacations awaiting you. You just can't help to learn something that is meant just for you. Yet it costs only $1.50.
