Books of the Week

Listing is an editorial service for readers' information. For convenient purchase of any book listed or any U.S. book in print, remit retail price (we pay postage) plus 25¢ handling charge if price is less than $2 to Book Order Service, Science News, 1719 N St., N.W., Washington, D.C. 20036. Prices subject to publishers' changes. Be sure to include zip code in your address.

THE ABSORBANT MIND—Maria Montessori, transl. from Italian by Claude A. Claremont—Holt, 1967, 304 p., illus., $6.95. Based on lectures which the Italian physician-educator gave in India in 1949, concerned with the nurture and care of young children's mental development during the first six years of life.

AIRCRAFT NOISE: Report of an International Conference on the Reduction of Noise and Disturbance Caused by Civil Aircraft—Board of Trade, London—Brit. Information Service, N.Y., 1967, 96 p., paper, $1.60. Reports of committees and plenary sessions on which representatives of 26 countries participated.

AMATEUR ASTRONOMER'S GLOS-Patrick Moore—Norton, 1967, 162 p., THE AMATEUR ASTRONOMER'S GLOSSARY—Patrick Moore—Norton, 1967, 162 p., illus. by Cyril Deakins, $5.95. Useful for quick reference, this dictionary explains terms from "aberration of starlight" to "zodiacal light," with 113 diagrams elucidating the more than 400 definitions.

CLAUDE BERNARD AND EXPERIMENTAL MEDICINE: Collected Papers—Francisco Grande and Maurice B. Visscher, Eds.—Schenkman Pub. Co., 1967, 338 p., illus., drawings by Claude Bernard, $8.95; paper, $4.95. Symposium papers commemorating the centenary of the publication of AN INTRODUCTION TO THE STUDY OF EXPERIMENTAL MEDICINE. Includes also the first English translation of Bernard's CAHIER ROUGE.

DESIGNING THE FUTURE: The Role of Technological Forecasting—Robert W. Prehoda, foreword by Sir George Thomson—Chilton Bk. Co., 1967, 310 p., $8.50. Dealing first with the art of knowing which way to direct development after breakthrough discoveries have been made, the author then examines a number of the more promising lines of advance in the physical and biological sciences and technologies.

THE DICTIONARY OF THE BIOLOGICAL SCIENCES—Peter Gray—Reinhold, 1967, 602 p., $14.75. Conceived as the primary English-language reference source for the entire life sciences spectrum, this newly created dictionary offers 40,000 definitions, critically reviewed by authorities. Words derived from identical roots are grouped together, mutant names and gene symbols are listed, the functions of more than 1,000 enzymes are defined.

DISSECTION OF THE FROG: Laboratory Studies in Biology, 770-776—Warren F. Walker, Jr.—Freeman, 42 p., illus., paper, $1.40. Seven loose-leaf exercises in external anatomy, muscles, digestive and respiratory systems, circulatory, urogenital, and nervous system, and sense organs (also available at 20¢ each).

DOING BUSINESS IN JAPAN—Robert J. Ballon, Ed.—Tuttle, 1967, 217 p., graphs, $5. Deals with the psychological and socio-economic factors of Japanese business behavior and analyzes the Japanese economy of the 1960's. Statistical appendix included.

GUIDE TO THE GALAXIES

ASTRO-EXPLORER, a unique and amazingly simple instrument to guide beginners on an exploration of the stars. A stimulating gift, tuned to today's universal interest in the world of space. A practical and interesting way to learn names of stars, planets, constellations. Works like a slide viewer. Insert slide into battery operated star finder and align projected image with actual stars in the sky. Labels identify stars. Astro-Explorer with 30 slides, planet information, instructions $2.00 ppd. (without batteries). GROW ENTERPRISES, Dept. $7N, 1731B Washington Blvd., Venice, California 90291

306

GUIDE TO REFERENCE BOOKS—Constance M. Winchell—Am. Library Assn., 8th ed., 1967, 741 p., $15. Completely revised, reorganized and enlarged edition, lists 7500 reference books which might be included in a large general reference collection, including many toreign language scholarly works, closing date was 1964. Overall arrangement differs radically from earlier editions, following now the subject organization of many modern libraries.

HE AND I AND THE ELEPHANTS—Bernhard Grzimek—Hill & Wang, 1967, 208 p. photographs, maps, $5. The story of a father-and-son expedition among the wildlife of the Ivory Coast.

THE HOLLOMAN STORY—George F. Meester—Univ. of New Mexico Press, 1967, 203 p., photographs, $5.95. An eyewitness account of the space programs at Holloman Air Force Base in high-allitude and high-velocity training, gravity simulation, satellite tracking and aeromedical research with animals.

INDIVIDUALITY IN PAIN AND SUFFER-ING—Asenath Petrie—Univ. of Chicago Press, 1967, 153 p., illus, $5. Reports on findings of original research concerning the human tendency to augment or reduce reactions to pain, with tentative hypothesis on the "defensive" reduction found among schizophrenic patients. See story, SN 8/19/67, p. 174.

LICENSING AND REGULATION OF NU-CLEAR REACTORS: Hearings, April/May 1967, Part 1—U.S. Congress, Joint Committee on Atomic Energy—GPO, 497 p., illus., paper, $1.75. Contains statements of witnesses, additional ma-terial submitted for the record, as well as corre-spondence and AEC regulatory review material.

MANY-BODY PROBLEMS and Other Selected Topics in Theoretical Physics—M. Moshinsky, T. A. Brody and G. Jacob, Eds.—Gordon & Breach, 1967, 955 p., diagrams, $49: paper, $31.50. Lectures delivered at the 1965 session of the Latin American School of Physics, University of Mexico. Topics range from basic many-body concepts to discussion of group SU(3) and elementary particles.

MATHEMATICAL QUICKIES—Charles W. Trigg—McGraw-Hill, 1967, 210 p., diagrams, $7.95. This diverse collection of problems for the mathematics enthusiast stresses the method of solution, challenging the reader to devise more elegant solutions than those provided.

PERCEPTION AND COSMOLOGY IN WHITEHEAD'S PHILOSOPHY—Paul F. Schmidt—Rutgers Univ. Press. 1967, 192 p., $9. This study, covering 16 of Whitehead's major publications, offers a perspective of the whole range of his metaphysical and scientific thinking.

THE PEREGRINE—J. A. Baker—Harper, 1967, 191 p., $4.95. A beautifully written book, takes the reader into the wilderness world of the peregrine hawk and other birds.

SELECTED NEWSPAPERS, PERIODICALS
AND RECORDS IN MICRO-FORM—Micro
Photo Division, Bell & Howell, 1967, multipaged, paper, single copies available upon request direct to publisher, 1700 Shaw Ave., Cleveland, Ohio 44112. Descriptive catalog of special collection of documents selected to assist historians, researchers and scholars in locating firsthand material from significant periods of history around the world.

SOCIAL SCIENCE & MEDICINE, Vol. I, No. 1—Peter J. M. McEwan, Ed.-in-Chief—Pergamon Press, April 1967, 126 p., illus., paper, quarterly, $30 annually; certified private subscribers, $10. New international journal, provides exchange of research material and opinion among behavioral scientists engaged in the medical field and concerned with exploring new ways of relating their discipline to problems of human well-being.

THE THEORY OF ISLAND BIOGEOGRAPHY—Robert H. MacArthur and Edward O.

FREE BOOK!

"How do you play chess?" 48-page book with 86 questions on rules, strategy, history, etc., answered by Fred Reinfeld. Excellent for beginners. Entirely free; no strings attached; no obligation. Supply limited, write now. Dept. SNL, Dover, 180 Varick St., N.Y., N.Y. 10014

Wilson—Princeton Univ. Press, 1967, 203 p., diagrams, $8. The collaborative work of an ecologist and a taxonomist-zoogeographer, the book uses mathematical and graphical models to provide a theoretical framework for faunal patterns on islands.

TRAVELS AND TRADITIONS OF WATER-FOWL—H. Albert Hochbaum—Univ. of Minn. Press, 1967, 301 p., illus., paper, $2.95. Reprint (1955), examines first the patterns of the flight of ducks and geese on their home range, then studies migration in the field, mostly in Manitoba.

ANIMAL MAGIC—Introd. by Johnny Morris and Keith Shackleton; Douglas Thomas, Ed.—Taplinger, 1967, 160 p., photographs, drawings, $2.95. Based on the successful BBC television program of animal observations for young nat-

TO THE PERSON WHO KNOWS THERE'S NO SUBSTITUTE FOR REAL

. . . nor for the joy of making beautiful things yourself!

By now England has a reputation as a land of strange people. But few of its inhabitants are more bewildering to ordinary mortals than the growing band of men and women who insist on owning hand-made wallets, pocket-books, briefcases and luggage.

Hand-made, mind you. And of real leather. Why, everybody knows you can get the same things made by machine, of plastic!

FOUND! A "FUN" WAY TO SAVE MONEY

Extravagant? Only at first glance. Actually, many of these people are "disciples" of Guy Williams, the man who has taught thousands of individualistic Britons how to make wonderful things out of leather. At home. In spare time.

Best of all, he has now put it all in a fascinating book on THE WONDERFUL HOBBY OF LEATHER-CRAFT, so anyone can join in the fun. You'll be surprised what easy fun it is, making really stunning the sets . . . gloves . . . book covers . . . waste baskets . . . cases for cameras and eyeglasses . . and many other fine objects.

other fine objects.

It's hard to say which is more fun. Working with softly gleaning, clean-smelling leather and seeing beautiful things come into being through your efforts—or watching your friends' eyes pop when they try to guess the prices of your new possessions. $15? $35? $65? Let them guess! Let it be your secret, that all you paid was the low cost of materials!

GIFT-GIVING WITHOUT PAIN

Think of the thilly established the Children of Children.

Think of the thrill of giving fabulous gifts at Christmas, for birthdays, anniversaries, housewarmings—princely gifts, which look like ten or twenty times the amount they cost you!

Think, too, of the fine book collection you will possess . . . when you cover your worn books in regal leather bindings. Even paperbacks can easily be bound to look—and wear—like costly leather-bound volumes.

TV TIME PAYS EXTRA DIVIDENDS

IN LIME PAYS EXTRA DIVIDENDS

Many amateur leather-workers wondered where they'd find the time for their new hobby. No problem at all' You can work even while you're watching TV. Then, even if the show's disappointing, the things you make will be delightful.

TRY THIS NEW HORRY....WITHOUT RISK

TRY THIS NEW HOBBY—WITHOUT RISK
The book tells and shows everything you need to know. It's erammed with step-by-step instructions and drawings, so you "ean't go wrong." There are even complete plans for dozens of exciting items.

But see for yourself! Rush your order direct to the publisher . . on a MONEY-BACK GUARANTEE Use the book to make as many items as you wish for a whole month. If you are not pleased in every way, simply return book for immediate refund. Just write your name and address and the title, WORKING WITH LEATHER, on a piece of paper, and mail it with only $3.95 today, to

EMERSON BOOKS, INC. Dept. 371-R

251 West 19 St., New York, N.Y. 10011