I'm working my way through M.I.T... would you like to buy a subscription to Science News?

He not only sells Science News . . . he reads it from cover to cover. Most of his colleagues do the same.

Our readership is well-educated and well-informed. Professional scientists and engineers in research and industry, science students and teachers, and science-minded laymen all like our magazine. They like it because it's an up-to-the-minute, fact-filled progress report to them on virtually every field of science and its applications . . . with special emphasis on what's new in the fields they'd like to know more about, as well as the ones they're familiar with.

Why not send a gift subscription to someone you know who would especially enjoy receiving such a practical and provocative present? Simply fill out the coupon and mail it to us. We'll take care of the rest.
