

Hold on a moment...I saw it right here in Science News

Professional scientists in universities and industry, science teachers and students and science-minded laymen alike . . . depend on Science News. It gives them what no other magazine can: a quick, weekly overview of the world of science and its applications. From biology to meteorology, oceanography to the medical sciences, high energy physics to the social and behavioral sciences, Science News' staff on five continents is covering the meetings and the literature, interviewing the scientists and visiting the labs. Their reports provide quick and concise, substantive analyses of the events making science news, in the context that makes them significant.

Science Fiction has grown up. Have you kept up?

A new literary genre has come of age—your age. Mature. Sophisticated. Provocative. And respected. You are invited to explore it now under an amazing trial offer. Take any 3 volumes on this page (worth up to $23.40 in original publishers' editions) for only $1, plus shipping and handling with trial membership. ■ New club selections will be described to you in advance each month. Choose from new works of fiction—and fact—by such acclaimed authors as Bradbury, Serling, Asimov, Clarke, Heinlein and others. Volumes are full-length, hard-bound—and uncut. Though they sell for as much as $4.95, $5.95 and more in their original publishers' editions, club members pay only $1.49 plus shipping. (You may choose an optional extra-value selection at a slightly higher price.) Your sole obligation is to accept as few as four books during the coming year. Cancel any time thereafter. Science Fiction Book Club, Garden City, N.Y. 11530.
