"COURAGEOUS, READABLE AND RELEVANT"

JOHN WARKENTIN, Ph.D., M.D., Editor of VOICES, says in his introduction — "EXISTENTIAL MAN reminded me of the writings of Georg Groddeck, John W. Rosen, Robert C. Murphy, Jr., Alexander Lowen and other pioneers. Dr. Johnson has described clearly the qualities of human encounters which can lead to new personal freedom and nobility for people who refuse to live constipated lives."

SIDNEY JOURARD, Ph.D., author of THE TRANSPARENT SELF, states in his review — "Dr. Johnson has risked himself, put himself on the line and produced a *courageous, readable and relevant book. He has forebears — Laing, Boss, Rogers, Binswanger — but his work has a distinct quality of its own which makes EXISTENTIAL MAN a genuine contribution to the psychotherapeutic enterprise."
