

Now you and your students can see eye to eye—
with the dual-viewing
AO Series Sixty Microscope.

Series Sixty Microscope has an exclusive transparent illuminated/movable pointer.

The AO Series Sixty Microscope offers you and your students the convenience of dual-viewing and the exclusive transparent illuminated/movable pointer which may be positioned anywhere in the field. Both viewers see the same point of reference simultaneously.

The dual-viewing head and pointer combination simplifies teaching, makes learning easier, lessons more detailed. The Series Sixty Microscope is ruggedly constructed and practically maintenance free. Superior optics provide well-defined image details. Write for more information or ask your AO representative for a convincing demonstration.

This newspaper isn't written for everyone

...but it might be just what you are looking for!

Are you the kind of person who rejects quick, superficial explanations...who likes to dig a little deeper and learn the real reasons behind important events? The kind of person who's apt to ask a few more questions at a business or PTA meeting...demand more facts from a salesman before buying...really think something through before making up your mind?

Then there's a publication you should know about: The National Observer, the national weekly newspaper for the business of living. The Observer is published by Dow Jones & Company, the same people who publish The Wall Street Journal.

When you read The National Observer, you not only learn what's happening, but also how events and issues affect the way you live. You don't just get a few quick flashes—you get all the facts. And you learn how they fit together.

Of course, this kind of intensive reporting takes more than a paragraph or two. That's why National Observer stories are sometimes longer than those in other publications. We write for readers who are willing to give the world a little more of their time.

And because these people are usually the kind who have the most interests, every issue of The National Observer covers a broad range of topics: government, labor, business, consumer affairs, science, the arts, books, entertainment, travel, fashions, cooking, education, and much more.

Today nearly 1,800,000 readers across the United States—thoughtful, intelligent people who want and need to make sense of what's happening—read and rely on The National Observer.

In fact, a national independent TIME-Louis Harris poll has shown The Observer to be one of the three most trusted newspapers in the United States. The others are The Wall Street Journal, also published by Dow Jones & Company, and The New York Times.

In this hurry-up world, a lot of people accept news as something to get on the run—or in between their favorite TV shows. The Observer is not for them.

But does it sound like the kind of newspaper that was meant for someone like you?

If so, we invite you to try The National Observer under a special trial subscription offer: 20 weeks for $2.67.

You needn't send any money now—we'll be happy to bill you later. Just mail the coupon. Do it today.
