EVOLUTION EVOLVING

Teachers, Students, Librarians

Order this ready source of ideas for science projects at the junior and senior high level. Thousands of Science Projects is a collection of over 4,000 titles of projects entered in local science fairs, the International Science and Engineering Fair, and the Westinghouse Science Talent Search. Some projects are so basic they have been done thousands of times. Some are largely original.

The titles have been classified by subject matter using the Library of Congress classification system so students can more easily find what they want in the library. Price: $1.00 each postpaid. Send check or money order to:

Scribners Science

Charles Scribner's Sons is one of the leading publishers of science books for the general reader. Scribners Science Program has been created to keep you from missing these worthwhile books. Written by prominent scientists, science teachers, and science editors and journalists, the books cover all aspects of science in a modern program that places emphasis on new fields of science and mathematics, new discoveries and theories in the more traditional subjects, and new academic subject areas, such as the history of science. These important books have been grouped together in libraries which provide in-depth knowledge in various fields. As the Program continues, new libraries will be offered and new books will be added to existing libraries. Meet today's worldwide demand for more science education by joining Scribners Science Program!

Here's how Scribners Science Program works:

- For every purchase of one complete library, you receive a free copy of Science Calendar 1975, prepared by the National Science Teachers Association. Or you may buy any combination of books totaling $19.95 and receive this important new calendar. (Purchase of books costing less than this amount may be made, but do not entitle you to the calendar.)
- Thereafter, through future advertisements and mailings, you will receive information describing new libraries and books being offered in the Program. However, there is no commitment to buy more books.
- For every additional library you purchase in the future, you will be entitled to a free science book or calendar, as described in these advertisements and mailings.
