Timely Books About Today's Issues

SETTING NATIONAL PRIORITIES: THE 1976 BUDGET—Barry M. Blechman, Edward M. Gramlich, and Robert W. Hartman
The sixth book in an annual series, this volume describes the major decisions reflected in the President's 1976 budget proposals and discusses some of the most important issues confronting the nation: fiscal policy, inflation, unemployment, energy policy, and defense spending. ISBN 0991-9 paper $3.50

POLLUTION, PRICES, AND PUBLIC POLICY—Allen V. Kneese and Charles L. Schultze
The authors review the history of federal pollution control efforts and propose policies which would encourage individuals, business firms, and municipalities to reduce pollution. ISBN 4993-7 paper $2.95

SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY AND THE BUSINESS PREDICAMENT—James W. McKie, Editor
A group of economists and public affairs analysts present their views of business responsibility. The contributors include James Q. Wilson, Martin Bronfenbrenner, Charles A. Myers, and Marvin Chirelstein. ISBN 5607-0 paper $4.95

UNCONTROLLABLE SPENDING FOR SOCIAL SERVICES—Martha Derthick
A detailed revelation of the inner workings of bureaucracy, this inquiry into executive control of federal spending focuses on a program in which control was lacking for several years—grants-in-aid to the states for social services under the public assistance titles of the Social Security Act. ISBN 1813-6 paper $2.50

DISPERSING POPULATION: WHAT AMERICA CAN LEARN FROM EUROPE—James L. Sundquist
The U.S. is committed by law to the objective of stemming further concentration in the country's largest and most congested urban regions. The author suggests that the experience of European programs deserve attention because they are essentially simple, not unduly costly, and they work. ISBN 8213-6 paper $3.95

THE ACCESSIBLE CITY—Wilfred Owen
". . . another splendid analysis . . . [The Author] offers a brief report on urban transportation in more than a hundred major cities in five continents which served as a 'global laboratory' for him and provided him some answers for our own problems."—City. ". . . an excellent overview of the urban transportation problem. . . ."—Science. ISBN 6769-2 paper $2.95

ENERGY REGULATION BY THE FEDERAL POWER COMMISSION—Stephen G. Breyer and Paul W. MacAvoy
Concluding, on the basis of econometric analysis, that the Federal Power Commission is effective but not efficient, the authors recommend very different institutional alternatives. "A courageous and insightful work."—Wall Street Journal. ISBN 1076-3 cloth $7.95

GOVERNMENT AND THE SPORTS BUSINESS—Roger G. Noll, Editor
". . . a valuable and exhaustive financial examination of North America's top four team sports. . . ."—Barron's. ". . . [a] provocative book. . . ."—Wall Street Journal. "[An] always fascinating study . . . tells it like it is in a way the sports reporters never have."—Newsweek. ISBN 6105-8 paper $3.95

SOCIAL SECURITY: PERSPECTIVES FOR REFORM—Joseph A. Pechman, Henry J. Aaron, and Michael K. Taussig
"It represents a unique relating of social security philosophy to tax policy and funding operations, with redistribution of wealth as a conscious aim. Functions and contradictions of the present system are clearly and concisely explained, and a closely reasoned argument supports the authors' agenda for reform."—Choice. ". . . a major contribution to the field."—Annals. ISBN 6973-3 paper $4.95

THE NUTRITION FACTOR: ITS ROLE IN NATIONAL DEVELOPMENT—Alan Berg

THE PRESIDENTIAL CAMPAIGN: THE LEADERSHIP SELECTION PROCESS AFTER WATERGATE—An essay by Stephen Hess Arguing that the political campaign is one way of testing potential Presidents, this essay analyzes the qualities—personal, political, and executive—expected in a President and evaluates the effectiveness of the campaign as a test. ". . . unconventional wisdom. . . ."—Washington Star-News. ". . . timely and useful. . . ."—Perspective. ISBN 3589-8 paper $2.50

BANKRUPTCY: PROBLEM, PROCESS, REFORM—David T. Stanley, et al.
". . . an extremely competent and interesting review of the current procedures in bankruptcy in the United States. . . . An important book that should be read by every concerned citizen and hopefully by legislators as well."—Bankers's Magazine. ISBN 8098-2 cloth $8.95

UNCERTAIN PASSAGE: CHINA'S TRANSITION TO THE POST-MAO ERA—A. Doak Barnett
"As usual, readers will find in Barnett's work some of the soberest, best informed, most dispassionate, thoughtful, and honest reflections on contemporary China available."—Choice. "There are . . . only very few books which, based upon competent scholarship, present the problems and perspectives of China to the educated public in a readable, but substantiated, manner. Doak Barnett's new book is one of them."—China Quarterly. ISBN 0819-x paper $3.95

BUREAUCRATIC POLITICS AND FOREIGN POLICY—Morton H. Halperin with the assistance of Priscilla Clapp and Arnold Kanter.
"No President who wants to control his adviser, and no adviser who wants to influence his President, can fail to read this book!"—Washington Post. "A fascinating catalogue of the processes of maneuver and persuasion as practiced in U.S. foreign policy in the postwar era."—Foreign Affairs. ISBN 3407-7 paper $3.95
