Instant Spelling Dictionary:

Nine out of ten times you consult a dictionary to check your spelling or to find out where a word may be divided with a hyphen. The new Instant Spelling Dictionary lists 25,000 words in large, easy-to-read type. It takes only a glance to look up a word and instantly find it correctly spelled and accented. In addition, words that are confused with other words because they sound alike are defined and cross-indexed. Words such as: affect—effect; capital—capitol; principle—principal; etc. Once you own a copy, you'll use it many more times than your big, awkward dictionary.

The new, revised edition has complete punctuation rules, spelling rules, capitalization, compounding words, form of address salutations, proof-readers marks, and over 1,000 abbreviations.

To introduce it to a greater number of people, Career Institute, the publisher is making it available to you for only $2.65 postpaid. Money back if not satisfied. Simply send your check or money order to: Spelling Dictionary, Dept. 857-08, Sherman Turnpike, Danbury, Conn. 06816.
