

This is the Book that Automotive Enthusiasts have asked for!
It's the story of MVR... the country's only Independent
Automotive Testing Organization.

Here are the facts about what goes on in the famous Motor Vehicle Research "torture chambers", where brand new automobiles are driven into "wrecks" in order to find out what makes them deliver or fail! You'll go behind the scenes in the laboratory and on the proving grounds... you'll watch new cars go through their paces, while unbiased and "you've got to show me" personnel check for features that aren't there... and faults that are! You'll learn a lot about your car... and you'll close the covers with a feeling of respect for those engineers who risk their lives in order to make your motoring life a safer one!

ONLY $2 ppd.

SEARCH AT LOCH NESS: The Expedition of The New York Times and the Academy of Applied Science—Dennis L. Meredith—Quadrangle, 1977, 183 p., illus., $9.95 Re-counts the human as well as the technical aspects of the search for "Nessie," presents the findings and conclusions of the expedition and outlines the history of the quest for the Loch Ness monster.

SPACE-TIME TRANSIENTS AND UNUSUAL EVENTS—Michael A. Persinger and Gyslaine F. Lafrenière—Nelson-Hall, 1977, 267 p., diagrams, $9.95, paper, $5.95. Written by a psychologist and his research assistant with the help of computer technology, this book is a study of unusual events. Its purpose is to encourage thinking about the limits of our concepts and the boundaries of man.

THE TRULY CURED CHILD: The New Challenge in Pediatric Cancer Care—Jan van Eys, Ed.—Univ Park, 1977, 177 p., paper, $7.50. Truly cured children are not just biologically cured, free of disease, but developmentally on a par with their peers and at ease with their experience of having had cancer. Proceedings of a workshop held in Houston, Texas, March 1976.

THE VIEW FROM THE OAK: The Private Worlds of Other Creatures—Judith and Herbert Kohl—Sierra/Scribner, 1977, 112 p., illus. by Roger Bayless, $8.95, paper, $4.95. There is no one world experienced by all living creatures. This charmingly illustrated book explores the ways in which a variety of animals, from whales to ants experience the world around them. Activities are included which are designed to help the reader enter these different worlds through an understanding of the senses of the animals themselves.

THE VISIBLE SCIENTISTS—Rae Goodell—Little, 1977, 242 p., $9.95. A look at visible scientists as a group—a study of the interrelationships among the scientific community, the mass media, the visible scientists and the public. Explores the question of what impact this group has on scientific research and the formation of federal science policy.
