GALILEO, NEWTON, HIPPARCHUS, EINSTEIN—AND NOW, YOU.

In fascinating detail, this lavishly illustrated introduction to astronomy shows how these and other brilliant pioneers made their discoveries, so that you, too, can make the same observations.

Learn how Galileo discovered Jupiter and its moons. How Hipparchus catalogued the stars by their brightness. And how Einstein's theories of stellar evolution unlocked clues to the origins of the universe. All you'll need is a simple telescope or binoculars to study: The Sun and Daylight Astronomy. The Stars and Constellations. The Moon, Planets, Comets, and Meteors. Clusters, Nebulae, and the Milky Way. Gravity and Space. And more.

A rare blend of colorful history and useful how-to, The Practical Astronomer includes terms, techniques, illustrated experiments, and over 600 dazzling illustrations.

FACTS ON FILE®

"There is no way to work in Journalism without it."
—Walter Cronkite

"In all my years with the Weekly, my most steadfast and dependable assistant was Facts On File, which I own back to the first issues in the fall of 1940...Facts On File is unique and indispensable."
—I.F. Stone

"Not since the 'invention' of the encyclopedia and the world almanac has such a useful reference tool been offered to the public as Facts On File."
—William L. Shirer

"It is quite simply indispensable—to the journalist, to the novelist, and to anyone who is threatened by loss of historical balance."
—William F. Buckley, Jr.

What is it?

FACTS ON FILE is the weekly digest and index of news. It is so carefully assembled and indexed that it provides the answers to most current affairs questions within minutes.

Information in FACTS ON FILE is summarized daily from leading news sources by a staff of skilled research editors. Carefully edited and classified, this information is added weekly to the "file" of past issues. The material is indexed exhaustively to make up-to-date research possible.

The ease with which this information can be retrieved is due to FACTS ON FILE's simple, yet sophisticated, reference system. The system includes:

- A weekly digest of national and foreign news, averaging twenty pages totaling 25,000 words.
- A twice monthly cumulative index.
- A desk-top binder for the insertion of each week's digests and indexes.
- A 32-page four-color world atlas.

What areas does it cover?

News of WORLD AFFAIRS centers on the major stories of the day—the Middle East, human rights, energy, strategic weapons developments, the U.N., Europe, Latin America, Africa, etc. Other subjects are covered as they come into the news.

The UNITED STATES AFFAIRS section concentrates on politics plus major domestic concerns: the White House, Congress, federal agencies, elections, civil rights, urban problems, defense, the judiciary, the economy and the environment.

The FOREIGN NATIONS section provides systematic reporting of major developments in foreign countries.

In addition, special subject coverage provides up-to-date reports on space, sports, obituaries, science, medicine, religion, education, crime, books, plays, films and persons in the news.

What are its sources?

Some of the primary press sources are the New York Times, Washington Post, Wall Street Journal, Miami Herald, Boston Globe, Atlanta Constitution, Houston Chronicle, Cincinnati Enquirer, Chicago Tribune, Denver Post, Los Angeles Times, St. Louis Post-Dispatch, Journal of Commerce, Toronto Globe and Mail, Times of London, Le Monde of Paris, Excelsior of Mexico City, El Nacional of Caracas, Granma of Havana, and the Australian of Sydney.

In addition to U.S. and foreign periodicals, FACTS ON FILE uses many other sources including the publications of Commerce Clearing House, Congressional Quarterly, Congressional Record, State Department Bulletin, Presidential Documents, and official press releases.

Who uses it?

GOVERNMENT: Library of Congress, National Security Council, National Archives, CIA, FBI, State Department, and hundreds of embassies and libraries overseas.

NEWS SERVICES AND BROADCASTING NETWORKS: Agence France Press, A.P., Gannett, Hearst, Reuters, Tass, UPI, ABC, BBC, CBS, NBC, Radio Free Europe.

MAGAZINES: Atlantic Monthly, Congressional Quarterly, Harper's, Kiplinger, Newsweek, Reader's Digest, Rolling Stone, Scholastic, Time, TV Guide, U.S. News & World Report.

LEADING CORPORATIONS, among them General Motors, Westinghouse, U.S. Steel, Rockwell International, Firestone, Rand, DuPont, Citibank, G.E., and AT&T.

GOVERNMENT AND UNIVERSITY RESEARCH LIBRARIES in scores of foreign countries. Plus thousands of public libraries, high school, college and university libraries, newspapers, radio and TV stations throughout the U.S. and Canada.

How is it indexed?

The FACTS ON FILE index, published twice monthly throughout the year, is the key to rapid research of the events recorded in the weekly news digest.

Compiled by a professional indexing staff and processed by computer, the index is in the mail to subscribers three or four weeks after the latest events it covers.

One of the index's most important features is its consolidation of new headings and entries into the existing index.

Annual subscription: $355.00
School and library discounts available.
