

“Winner of the Pulitzer Prize and the American Book Award for hardcover non-fiction.”

“A high level of narrative art”

“From mid-1978 to early 1980, a group of engineers at Data General Corporation developed a new super-mini computer. In THE SOUL OF A NEW MACHINE, Tracy Kidder provides a factual accounting of this achievement, and anyone interested in the annals of American industry will find the story absorbing. But Mr. Kidder...has endowed the tale with such pace, texture and poetic implication that he has elevated it to a high level of narrative art...

“Mr. Kidder is our Dante...”

a young explorer standing on the threshold of a new age. ...He proceeds by taking the reader ‘down into’ the machine, and indeed the book consists of repeated descents—not only into an environment of wires and silicon chips, but also into dark corporate basements where secret work proceeds feverishly behind locked doors...

“In technical creativity they have found a fulfillment that occasionally verges on ecstasy...”

“The leading lights of the engineering team, chosen for their brilliance, energy and ambition, are portrayed as eccentric knights errant, clad in blue jeans and open collars, seeking with awesome intensity the grail of technological accomplishment.... The project becomes a crusade....

“A worthy literature of science and technology”

“Mr. Kidder’s splendid book goes far toward reviving Huxley’s prophecy...of a worthy literature of science and technology.”

—from the New York Times Book Review’s
front-page review by Samuel C. Florman

“All of Mr. Kidder’s hopes for his book have been fulfilled.... Even someone like this reviewer, who barely understood the difference between computer hardware and software when he began, was able to follow every step.” —Christopher Lehmann-Haupt, New York Times

“A superb book, one that computer engineering has deserved for a long time.... All the incredible complexity and chaos and exploitation and loneliness and strange, half-mad beauty of this field are honestly and correctly drawn here.” —Robert Pirsig, author of Zen and the Art of Motorcycle Maintenance

“If you like the writing of John McPhee, you’ll love the work of Tracy Kidder.... What makes Kidder’s book so rich is that he describes the human psyche as well as the computer industry.... Brilliant, concise and original.” —Playboy

How the Science Fiction Book Club works:

When your application for membership is accepted, you'll receive your choice of any 4 books on this page for only $1 (plus shipping and handling) and a free copy of The Dragonriders of Pern. You may examine them in your home and, if not completely satisfied, return your 4 books within 10 days—membership will be cancelled and you'll owe nothing. The FREE book and carryall will be yours to keep whether or not you remain a member. About every 4 weeks (14 times a year), we'll send you the Club's bulletin, Things to Come, describing the 2 coming Selections and a variety of Alternate choices. In addition, up to 4 times a year you may receive offers of special Selections, always at low Club prices. If you want the 2 Selections, you need do nothing; they'll be shipped automatically. If you don't want a Selection, prefer an Alternate, or no book at all, just fill out the convenient form always provided, and return it to us by the date specified. We allow you at least 10 days for making your decision. If you do not receive the form in time to respond within 10 days and receive an unwanted Selection, you may return it at our expense. As a member you need take only 4 Selections or Alternates during the coming year. You may resign any time thereafter, or remain a member as long as you wish. One of the 2 Selections each month is only $3.98. Other Selections are slightly higher, but always much less than hardcover publishers' editions—up to 65% off. A shipping and handling charge is added to all shipments. Send no money now, but do mail the coupon today! *Explicit scenes and language may be offensive to some. Note: Prices shown are publishers' edition prices.
