

The Weekly Newsmagazine of Science

SCIENCE NEWS

September 1, 1984
Vol. 126, No. 9
Pages 129-144

Scrap-Heap Plastic Blues

For the 43rd consecutive year
the Westinghouse Science Talent Search will help hundreds of deserving young people along the road to higher education.

Help your brightest students get involved!

Since 1942, winning "the Westinghouse" has been one of the most elite academic achievements that American high school students could attain.

And the recognition associated with participating on a national level in the only competition of its kind has helped thousands of seniors receive financial aid and recommendations to America's top colleges and universities.

The rewards last a lifetime.

Science Talent Search winners earn doctorates at a rate 25 times the national average for college graduates, and go on to assume vital roles in America's industries, universities and research institutions. And no fewer than five times between 1972 and 1981, former winners have been awarded the Nobel prize.

Research projects must be received by December 15, 1984.

For further information:

Request a complete contest entry kit from Science Service, 1719 N Street, N.W., Washington, DC 20036.
Or call 800-245-4474. In Pennsylvania, call 800-242-2550.

You can be sure...if it's Westinghouse

THE BROWSER'S BOOK OF BEGINNINGS: ORIGINS OF EVERYTHING UNDER, AND INCLUDING, THE SUN By Charles Panati

In The Browser's Book Of Beginnings readers will discover the often unknown origins of subjects as diverse as humans, manners, the great religions, movable type, life in all its forms, literature, comic books, civilizations, languages, music, bullfighting, bagpipes, microscopes, shorthand, corporations, submarines, bulldogs, stereo, sponges, millipedes and monkeys, tea and Tab, and thousands of other items.

Houghton-Mifflin, 1984, 427 pages,
9¼" x 6¼", hardback, $17.95; paper, $9.95

"I hope that there are, in all, enough curious and informative origins here to edify, to entertain, and perhaps to enable you to recoup the cost of this book by winning bets with friends on, say, the name of the French king who, when presented by his royal gardener with the first pineapple grown in his country, snatched up, with characteristic greed and impatience, the yet unpeeled fruit and bit vigorously into it, severely lacerating his lips on its prickly eyes."

—Charles Panati

Science News Book Order Service
1719 N St., NW, Washington, DC 20036

Please send _____ copy(ies) of The Browser's Book of Beginnings.
I include a check, payable to Science News Book Order Service, for $17.95/$9.95 plus $1.00 handling (total $18.95/$10.95) for each copy. Domestic orders only.

Name _____

Address _____

City _____ State _____ Zip _____

RB260

