

For Graduation
give
SCIENCE NEWS

*You will be remembered
all year*

SCIENCE NEWS is the ideal graduation gift for students — college, graduate school or even high school — who are in search of an overview of developments in all the major fields of science every week.

Why? Because it is planned for people on the go. It reports key developments clearly, accurately, concisely — in about an hour's reading time a week. For someone with no more than an hour to spare, SCIENCE NEWS summarizes important news with great reliability. Moreover, it does so with a remarkable depth and interpretation that make the important findings of often-remote scientific journals accessible to the reader who is not an expert in that field.

SPECIAL GRADUATION SAVINGS!

Your first gift subscription to SCIENCE NEWS is $29.50. Each additional one-year subscription is only $25.00 — and you may include your own renewal or new subscription at this money-saving rate.

NEMESIS

The Death-Star and Other Theories of Mass Extinction

By Donald Goldsmith

Exploring one of the liveliest scientific controversies in years, astronomer Donald Goldsmith unsnarls the conflicting explanations for periodic extinction: He takes the reader on a tour of iridium deposits in Italian cliffs; the Oort cloud—a remote swirl of a trillion comets; the Siberian site of the mysterious Tunguska explosion of 1908; and nearby regions of the Milky Way that astronomers have just started to comb for the “death star.” He also considers explanations that compete with the Nemesis theory: the “galactic oscillation” hypothesis, which ties extinctions on Earth to the path of the sun as it bobs around the Milky Way; and the concept of “Planet X” — an undiscovered member of our solar system that may lurk beyond Pluto.

— from the book

“NEMESIS brings to us, in one entrancing work, the whole story of one of the great scientific and human puzzles of our time. The strengths of this book are its depth, its wonderful explanations of matters which are arcane at first blush. The beauty of science shines throughout. At the same time, Agatha Christie would be envious.”

The new game that can boost your SAT scores

COLLEGE PURSUIT™

Complete preparation, easy review, quick reinforcement

The purpose of College Pursuit is to make studying for the Scholastic Aptitude Tests (SATs) a little easier, a lot more fun, and consequently, much more valuable to the player. It is not a substitute for a formal high school education but it can reinforce what you're learning in school, as well as help you measure your progress. College Pursuit explains why an answer is right, it shows you where to study harder or when to ask more questions of your teachers.

You can play College Pursuit alone, with one or two friends or in a large group. The basic game is played with 2 to 6 players, but there are other variations.

Reading Card 2

Read the following passage and answer your question on the basis of what is stated or implied.

Evil has nowhere else been portrayed with such mastery as in the character of Iago. Richard III, for example, beside being less subtly conceived, is a far greater figure and a less repellent. His physical deformity, separating him from other men, seems to offer some excuse for his egoism. In spite of his egoism, too, he appears to us more than a mere individual: he is the representative of his family, the Fury of the House of York. Nor is he so negative as Iago: he has strong passions, he has admirations, and his conscience disturbs him. There is the glory of power about him. Though an excellent actor, he prefers force to fraud, and in his world there is no general illusion as to his true nature.

See reading card number 2
 "The Fury of the House of York" refers to
 (A) Iago
 (B) Richard III
 (C) A member of Richard III's family
 (D) A ghost
 (E) A pet

Reading Comprehension

(B) Richard III
 The correct answer is (B). The word Fury is capitalized to make it a name or title, and the entire phrase is an appositive. A similar sentence construction would be: "David is a real menace, the terror of the whole neighborhood."
