Audubon Society's VideoGuide to the Birds of North America: I

From MasterVision

Combines bird sights and sounds for easy identification of 116 species, from loons to vultures. Computer animated range maps clearly define breeding and wintering ranges for each species. First of three volumes. "Enthusiastically recommended. The narration is not only authoritative, it is literate, witty and full of interesting facts."

— Library Journal

"Entertaining, as well as educational. An important addition to published field guides." — Philadelphia Inquirer

Ducks Unlimited's VideoGuide to Waterfowl and Game Birds

From MasterVision

A comprehensive system of sight and sound identification for 43 species of waterfowl and 21 upland game birds of North America. Computer simulations, breathtaking footage and sounds from the Cornell Ornithological Laboratory. "Takes you where no printed guidebook could. The computer animations — wing motions and beat frequency — are most impressive."

— Duck Hunter's Closet

"Hunters and naturalists can become hotshot armchair bird identification experts by watching Duck Unlimited's video guide."

— New York Post
