The Macmillan Illustrated Encyclopedia of Dinosaurs and Prehistoric Animals, by Dougal Dixon, Barry Cox, R.J.G. Savage and Brian Gardiner. Here, arranged in evolutionary sequence, are over 600 species of enormous diversity, from predatory dinosaurs to primitive amphibians, from giant armored fish to mammoths and saber-tooths. All are depicted in full-color paintings drawn according to strict scientific principles. In painting each animal, the artists have worked in close collaboration with a team of expert paleontologists, and have used as their templates the records of the rocks—fossil bones, teeth, skin, hair, even footprints. 1988, 312 pages, 9¼" x 11½", hardcover, $39.95. EncyDinos
