Good Heavens! The notorious Carmen Sandiego has shifted her base of operations to outer space! She and her gang of 14 alien outlaws are roaming the solar system, swiping whatever they can. The Acme Detective Agency, Intergalactic Division, is counting on you to end the crime spree. So get ready for a thrilling chase through the stars as you comb the cosmos for vital clues! The program includes:

- ▶ An easy-to-use electronic database packed with information on the geography, mythology and science of space, including video clips of planetary flybys.
- ▶ On-screen instrumentation to navigate the stars and receive important clues.
- ▶ More than 50 digitized photographs, including the latest NASA images.
- ▶ An original musical score
- ▶ Seven levels of challenge and hundreds of different cases.
