

Scientific T-shirts

Jazz up your wardrobe with these intriguing and informative T-shirts! These eye-catching and unique designs are each representative of a different field, be it chemistry, engineering, or anatomy. Fun to wear and comfortable too — these shirts are all made from 100% pre-shrunk cotton. All shirts come in adult sizes. So, pick out the styles you like best and order today!

Escher Symmetry

This stylish and very colorful T-shirt highlights reproductions of Escher's symmetry patterns of the sea—fishes and seahorses transforming, interlocking, and repeating. An image of Escher rises out of the "sea." This mythical illusion repeats on the backside of the shirt. Available in adult sizes Large and X-Large. $18.95

Buckminster Fuller Dymaxion™ World Map

Fuller invented the Dymaxion™ map to display Earth without any visible distortion of the relative shapes and sizes of the land and sea areas, and without any breaks in the continental contours. This Dymaxion™ T-shirt also shows average temperatures and population centers around the globe. The image on the back illustrates how to fold the map into a three dimensional object. Available in adult sizes Large and X-Large. $16.95

Michelangelo

The graceful, all-over pattern featuring Michelangelo's anatomical drawings repeats on the backside of the shirt. Available in adult sizes Large and X-Large. $18.95

The Seas of the Moon

Easily identify the seas of the moon in daytime or at night as the image on this shirt glows in the dark! The words "The Dark Side of the Moon" appear on the backside and also glow in the dark. Available in adult sizes Large and X-Large. $16.95

Periodic Table

A great cheat sheet for remembering all the elements, this shirt duplicates all the features of the periodic table including classification, atomic number and weight, symbol, and metallic and radioactive levels. This shirt also glows in the dark! Available in adult sizes Large and X-Large. $14.95
