

SEE HEAR AND IDENTIFY 505 BIRDS BY VIDEO

Audubon Society's VideoGuide to Birds of North America combines bird sights and sounds on videocassette for simple and accurate identification of each of the 505 species that breed in North America. Moving and still pictures show each bird's markings and distinctive behavior – in its natural habitat. Computer-animated range maps clearly indicate breeding and wintering areas for each species. Bird calls and sounds from the Cornell Laboratory of Ornithology complement informative narration and stunning visuals.

Each volume also includes a checklist that will help you keep track of the species you've added to your list and give you a place to mark down your VCR's counter numbers, making the VideoGuides easy to use as well as enjoy.

Whether you're an expert birder or simply enjoy identifying the birds that gather at your backyard feeder, the Audubon Society's VideoGuides promise hours of pleasure. They are a valuable addition to any home library. VHS only.
