

ANNOUNCING THE

29th Annual Science Talent Search

for Westinghouse Science
Scholarships and Awards

One of the best ways to discover and develop scientific talent in your secondary school . . . is to encourage every science-minded boy or girl who is in the last year of public, private or parochial secondary school . . . in the United States, but excluding U.S. possessions . . . to enter the 29th Annual Science Talent Search. You can help by obtaining all the information they need to compete for America's top science scholarship of $10,000 . . . a share of the $67,500 in Westinghouse Science Scholarships . . . and an all-expenses-paid trip to the 29th Science Talent Institute in Washington, D.C.

Here is the Talent Search timetable:

September and October Reorganize your science club to review and plan projects and start reports.

October 15 Send for entry materials for all who want to enter the competition. As soon as these arrive, begin to fill in the recommendations and scholastic record on the personal data blank for each entrant.

December 1 Give the STS Science Aptitude Examination on or after Monday, Dec. 1. Preferably the complete entry for each student should be sent then, but if more time is needed you have a bit longer.

December 27 All entries must be in the office of Science Service by midnight, Saturday, Dec. 27, closing date of the Twenty-Ninth Annual Science Talent Search.

The forty winners of the 28th Science Talent Search who were chosen to attend the five-day all-expenses-paid visit to the Nation's Capital.

To arrange for entries, obtain complete details by writing to:
Science Service, 1719 N Street, N.W.
