Praised by Thousands

"Should be in reach of every child . . . grown-ups as well."

H.Y., Ohio

"Best all-round nature book I've seen in my teaching experience."

Mrs. F.G., Vt.

"My love for wild life has been enriched by the knowledge this wonderful book imparts."

W.B., Cal.

Read how Flamingoes by thousands were wantonly killed for plumage.

Moose lunge at each other with their 100-lb antlers in fierce battle for mate.

Red Fox eludes hounds by crossing streams, zigzagging, even stealing ride on sheep.

Poisonous Gila Monster snaps at any moving object, clamps jaws in vise-like grip which human hand cannot pry open.

The "cowardly" coyote can actually give a good account of itself against a wildcat.

The Snake-Fighting Bird
The roadrunner, a plucky bird, can pace a horse for miles, will attack a rattlesnake, side-stepping the deadly fangs and pecking it to death while it is uncoiled.

Pig That Hunts Man
Wild hogs, when enraged, may band together and hunt man! Most formidable of American game animals is the giant grizzly bear. One chased a hunter after having 4 shots pumped through its heart! Crows have a remarkable social instinct. If one falls into the sea, his comrades help him ashore.

Do You Know? . . .
How otters play racing tag, follow-the-master, and have coasting parties? . . . Why common toad is worth $20.00 a year to American farmers? . . . Why one big city provides special houses for bats?

How eels, returning to their birth place, migrate thousands of miles from land-locked lakes to warm

Sargasso Sea? . . . How giant deep sea marlin entertains with dramatic jumps and tail-walking stunts? . . .

50 and 60 MPH on No Gas

Do you know that jack-rabbits stage realistic boxing matches, dash cross-country at 50 miles an hour, leap 7 foot fences? . . . That one pair of meadow mice would have 1,000,000 descendants a year if unchecked by natural destructive forces? . . .

Multiply these snatches of animal lore a thousandfold — by the length and breadth of America — and you have AMERICAN WILD LIFE — one of nature's greatest collections of living wonders on this earth!

Clever coyote may ignore unarmed man, but hunter with gun rarely gets in range.

Wood Turtle sometimes thinks a warm winter day means spring is here.

Fish, ants, crabs, tree shoots, pigs, cattle, sheep — all spell food to hungry Black Bear.
