Here's our introductory coax:

Now you can get 23 weekly issues of U.S. News & World Report for about 13¢ an issue.

The same 23 issues would cost $11.50 on the newsstands, and $5.30 by the basic subscription price. Thus, you save substantially.

This Special Election Year Offer is our way of coaxing you to switch to the more serious weekly news magazine—the one that treats the news thoroughly and in depth so that you can use it to make better decisions at home and at work.

This list above is just a sampling from recent issues. Every issue brings you in-depth reports such as these on the latest news developments. You also get special newsletters that zero in on meaningful events in the news, here and overseas...exclusive interviews with men who make the news...plus a complete picture of current trends in wages, prices, labor, science, and—especially important this Election Year—politics.

If you'd like to get started in time for the exciting events coming next month—mail the coupon while our introductory coax is still in force.

U.S. News & World Report

1436-30 24th St, NW, Washington, DC 20037 AT21-E

I want to find out whether your magazine can be as useful as you say. Please send it each week for the next 23 weeks. You may bill me later for the Trial Subscription price of $3.00 (a substantial saving).

I understand my $3.00 will be refunded in full at any time during this Trial Subscription if I find the magazine does not live up to my expectations.
