

An Event in Scientific Publishing

Sarton's INTRODUCTION TO THE HISTORY OF SCIENCE

Volume I: From Homer to Omar Khayyam Presents

- 1 A broad view of universal science. Presented in such a manner that summaries provide a continuous narrative, supplemented with full reading guides for further study.
- 2 A comprehensive biographical dictionary. Gives the name and contribution of every outstanding thinker in a nutshell.
- 3 A review of the state of science at any given period, and records the advance of human thought in all countries and eras.

Can You Answer These Questions?

Who founded the first school of music in Europe, and when? See page 61.

What thinker reconciled the first chapters of Genesis and the scientific idea of evolution 1400 years ago? See page 378.

How old is the manufacture and use of glass? See page 389.

What great mathematician is best known as a maker of verse? See page 759.

Who was the earliest editor of the Iliad and Odyssey? See page 164.

The Author

George Sarton is the editor of Isis, the journal of the history of science, lecturer on the history of science at Harvard University, and associate in the history of science of the Carnegie Institution of Washington.

A complete guide to the field of exact knowledge. Indispensable to everyone who honestly likes to know.

Brief Histories of Science

Medicine: An Historical Outline $3.00

By Major G. Seelig. A brief, spirited and dramatic story of the rise of modern medicine and its makers. A readable book, copiously illustrated with portraits.

Evolution of Preventive Medicine $3.00

By Sir Arthur Newsholme. A narrative of the conquest of disease, recounting both men and events. One of the really readable books on medical evolution, by an international authority and a writer of charm.

Cloth, gold stamped

6 $\frac{7}{8}$ x10

839 pages

Comprehensively Indexed

Price $10.00

Order from your bookseller or

THE WILLIAMS & WILKINS COMPANY
Mt. Royal and Guilford Aves. Baltimore, Maryland

Say you saw it advertised in the SCIENCE NEWS-LETTER