A TREASURY OF SCIENCE

Edited by HARLOW SHAPLEY with SAMUEL RAPPORT and HELEN WRIGHT

NO OTHER book in the field of Science even approaches the timeless, world-wide panorama offered in this great volume. Here is the substance of a hundred books... a massive anthology of modern man's entire universe of knowledge... from the dawn of history to the present! It includes selections from the writings of such celebrated scientists as Galileo, Ben Franklin, Pasteur, Eve Curie, Einstein, Clendening, Darwin, Huxley, Beebe, Ditmars, and many, many others, writing of men and stars and planets and animals — about the weather, x-rays, relativity, the atom, radium and space.

This newly revised and greatly enlarged 3rd edition brings you much new material on recent developments in atomic research, medicine and other fields. A fascinating new section has been added on "Science and the Future," covering synthetics, nuclear power, machines that "think," interplanetary flight, and the general outlook for the future. A TREASURY OF SCIENCE is truly the cornerstone book for any science library.
