ROCKETS, MISSILES AND SPACE TRAVEL

by WILLY LEY

Soar through the ages into the future! Not fiction, but thrilling facts... including preview of already planned flights to the moon and planets, permanent space stations, fantastic weapons, and much more. Illustrated. Retail price $5.95.

GREAT ADVENTURES IN MEDICINE

Edited by SAMUEL RAPPORT and HELEN WRIGHT

Containing more than 70 carefully chosen selections, this large book covers the most interesting, exciting and important developments in the field of medicine from the crude but often courageous research of early times to the miraculous achievements of this era. It is virtually a history of the progress of medical science. Retail price, $5.00.

A TREASURY OF SCIENCE

Edited by HARLOW SHAPLEY

A massive anthology of man's entire universe of knowledge. Includes writings of Galileo, Franklin, Pasteur, Curie, Einstein, Darwin, Beebe, Ditmars and many others. This newly revised and enlarged 3rd edition brings you much new material on atomic research, medicine, etc. Retail price, $5.95.

THE CHALLENGE OF MAN'S FUTURE

by HARRISON BROWN

One of America's foremost geo-chemists produced this sobering analysis of the hazards that face mankind in the years ahead. Neither an alarmist nor a buoyant optimist, Brown examines the trends and facts from a scientist's unbiased viewpoint. "This objective work has high value," wrote Albert Einstein. Retail price $3.75.

ANTOINE LAVOISIER

by DOUGLAS McKEE

A scholarly yet highly readable account of the life and work of "the father of modern chemistry"—the 18th century genius who first broke down air and water into their basic components and compiled the first table of chemical elements. McKee's book is a perceptive recreation of the great scientist's life, written with compassion and understanding. Retail price, $6.00.

THE WORLD OF NATURAL HISTORY

by JOHN RICHARD SAUNDERS

Reading this book is like being taken on a personally conducted tour of that fabulous treasure house, the American Museum of Natural History, in New York City. Along with lucid descriptions and many illustrations of the famous exhibits and Hayden Planetarium, the author gives you the history of man's discovery of the natural sciences and the growth of the Museum over the years. Retail price, $5.00

MAIN CURRENTS OF SCIENTIFIC THOUGHT

by STEPHEN S. MASON

Accurately tracing the course of scientific thinking, experiment and research down through the ages, Dr. Mason gives us a fascinating and lively narrative of the struggles, perseverance and triumphs from the earliest theories and speculations of Copernicus to the latest developments in nuclear research. Retail price, $6.00.

BENEFITS YOU ENJOY AS A MEMBER

THIS NEW KIND OF BOOK CLUB is for people interested in Science... who want to keep abreast of scientific discoveries, inventions and developments of all kinds the world over.

Each month the Club's editors select an outstanding book. This and other significant works in the same field are described in The Science Report which you receive free.

By joining NOW, you receive ANY TWO of the books shown here as a GIFT and will be billed for the third at the special introductory rate of only $3.95 plus a nominal charge for packing and postage. For every four additional selections you take after joining, you receive a valuable Bonus Book FREE.

How Pathfinder Magazine says: You CAN DISCOVER THE SECRET OF LOW-COST TRAVEL from an article in the bi-weekly news magazine, THE PATHFINDER.

Dream trips you can afford:

ROUND THE WORLD FOR $548

THE LITTLE Tyrhennia Line steamer Olbia takes a couple of days to butt through the Mediterranean, from Genoa via Leghorn to brigand-riddled Corsica. If you're aboard, don't stay up late watching the wild mountain dances of Ligurian peasants on the steerage deck. For you must be on deck at dawn—while you pass the lone island of Capraia, with salt-brown Elba to the south—to watch for the high Corsican peaks to show above the horizon.

At $6.50 (including five full meals) the Olbia's voyage is a fair example of dream trips you can afford. And there are others—colorful journeys to exotic lands that often cost little more than your vacation at home. Trade your usual beach for a houseboat in the Vale of Kashmir, or a cruise among the lesser Caribbean islands by native trading schooner.

You can travel clear around the world—to South Seas coral isles and the misty lakes of New Zealand, to Australia and the plains of Africa, to Europe's leisurely antiquity—for just $548 in fares. That long steamer jaunt can be duplicated in ten days by plane for $1,700, but where's the fun?

Last year, 52 million Americans spent a record of $12 billion on vacations. Many went on organized cruises at prices from $125 to $25,000. But some traveled off the tourist track, got cheaper and more glamorous vacations.

JUST REMEMBER

- • Bargain paradises get that way because they haven't been discovered by tourist mobs. They're harder to find and to reach—but more rewarding.
- • Chromed ocean liners and international hotels are America transplanted. For fun at budget prices, go by freighter and stay at pensions.
- • Make your longest hop from Europe, not directly from the U. S. Currency differentials and lower European rates can save up to 50%.
- • Don't go unless you're ready to plan well ahead and to shop for travel bargains.

CARIBBEAN There are still undiscovered Edens at America's back door. Tobago, the Robinson Crusoe island that rivals Tahiti, where living is so cheap the Island's chief official gets only $240 a month. Or, Grenada, which, as a native described it: "Dis islan', suh, is 'ting Gahd mek from rainbo'." There, for $12 a week, you can rent a 3-bedroom house with its own private beach. Many of the best spots can be reached only by trading schooner. Go down to the waterfront at Grenada or elsewhere and bargain with dusky skippers to make your own price—keep this up and cruise all the lesser islands of this jeweled chain.

Here's a sampling of dream trips

Round the World. Every 2 months a Shaw Savill vessel leaves London for Curacao, Panama, and New Zealand. Cross the Pacific, change at Wellington for another SSL ship going west via Australia and South Africa back to England. Minimum fare about $548—but the trip is usually booked up 15 months in advance. (Reach London for about $175 from New York.) Other round the world trips from the U. S. as low as $250-$300 a month via deluxe freighters.

India. Minimum fare from New York to Ceylon, India, or Malaya is about $350. Transshipping in England, you can make the trip by luxury liner (tourist class) for $319. Go to the lotus-covered mountain lakes of Kashmir, where a furnished houseboat with four turbaned servants rents for $70 a month. Total costs for a couple run around $175 a month—in the most beautiful spot on earth.

South Seas. You can still live the life of a Tahitian beachcomber—but not in Tahiti, which has found out about the Yankee dollar. Instead, drowse on brilliant Sigatoka Beach at Suva or watch Pacific combers crash on reef-girt Norfolk or Lord Howe Islands. (You can reach the South Seas by freighter from the U. S.)

Africa. Perhaps the biggest travel bargain today is a 70-day luxury cruise around the Dark Continent, calling at a score of colorful ports like Dar-es-Salaam, for $660, round trip from London. (Combine this with a low cost tour of England!)

Mediterranean. A two-week cruise to Malta, Naples, Casablanca, and Lisbon starts as low as $92, round trip from London. But try a longer stay—in the lush valleys of Mount Olympus on Cyprus, where a couple can live comfortably for $1,400 a year; on Aegean islands that hide remnants of a 5,000-year-old civilization among olive and cork groves; or with the fisherfolk of rocky Sardinia, where hotel rates are 24c a day or $1.12 with three good meals.

Atlantic Islands. Green cones standing out of the sparkling waters of the South Atlantic—these are the Azores and the Canaries. Tropical flowers, sandy beaches, and the charm of old Spain are combined here—with rents of about $20 a month, groceries for a couple at $10 a week and servants $5 a month each.

The vagabond voyager with a fistful of dreams can get aids to planning from these 2 guides:

BARGAIN PARADISES OF THE WORLD

This is a book on how to double what your money can buy. For that is what spending a few weeks or months, or even retiring, in the world's Bargain Paradises amounts to.

Throughout, you learn where to spend a while in the West Indies, Central and South America, the healthful islands of the South Seas, the wonderlands of New Zealand, the Balearic Islands, the Canaries, Madeira, etc.

You read about "Lands of Eternal Springtime," "Californias Abroad," "Islands in the Wind," "Four Modern Shangri-Las," about mountain hideaways, tropical islands as colorful as Tahiti but nearer home, about modern cities where you can live for less, about quiet country lanes and surf-washed coastal resorts.

About 100 photos, 4 maps. 1954 edition.
Price $1.50

TRAVEL ROUTES AROUND THE WORLD

With this book you can stop saying that travel is too expensive. Passenger-carrying freighters do offer you a way to see the world for as little as you'd spend at a resort. And what accommodations you get—large rooms with beds (not bunks), probably a private bath, lots of good food, plenty of relaxation as your ship speeds from port to port.

Trips to Rio and Buenos Aires, to the West Indies, between California and New York, out to Hawaii—trips to almost everywhere—are within your means.

There are round-the-world voyages and shorter trips too. Fast, uncrowded voyages to England, France, the Mediterranean; two- or three-week vacations to the West Indies or down the Pacific Coast.

This book names the lines, tells where they go, how much they charge, briefly describes accommodations. It includes practically every passenger-carrying service starting from or going to New York, Canada, New Orleans, the Pacific Coast, England, France, Scandinavia, the Mediterranean, Africa, the Near East, the Indies, Australia, the South Seas, Japan, Hawaii, etc. The big 120 page 1954 edition is yours for $1.00.
