Announcement to Teachers

"I am a high school student and I find Science News Letter very useful in keeping me up on recent developments in science." JOSEPH MAYFIELD, JR., 13517 Van Nuys Blvd., Pacoima, California.

"In conducting research work for a term paper for one of my classes, I have found Science News Letter the most beneficial and helpful of all periodicals I have yet had occasion to use." MALCOM M. JULIAN, Elliott Ball Hall, Muncie, Indiana.

"I read your magazine and I think it is wonderful! It should be in all schools to promote science and American ingenuity." J. S. BACON, Breaux Bridge, Louisiana.

"I teach General Science in the Junior Part of the School, and naturally have to keep up to date in order to answer all the questions the children are so anxious to ask. It is hardly necessary for me to say how welcome the postman is, when he brings another issue of Science News Letter!" J. KENNETH BROWN, c/o Friends School, Hobart, Tasmania, Australia.

"I think that Science News Letter is without doubt, the best way for a science teacher to get the most for his money." A. RALPH BOXELL, Clinton High School, Clinton, Missouri.

"I take this opportunity to tell you that I am enjoying Science News Letter very much. It is a clear, concise, and comprehensive digest of current science. I find it very helpful in my science work." SISTER LORETTO THOMAS, St. Joseph High School, Pittsfield, Massachusetts.

"The kids (ages 6-10-11) go for it each week—swell." LT. COMDR. H. SEIELSTAD, U. S. Coast Guard, Cleveland, Ohio.

"I find Science News Letter very useful in my work and congratulate you on its development. Wishing you continued success with this valuable magazine, I am," ALFRED J. PYKE, Luther College, Regina, Saskatchewan, Canada.

"We are new subscribers and took only a short subscription as a trial but the entire family find Science News Letter of great interest." MRS. FRED J. HOOPEES, Box 52, Paoli, Pennsylvania.

"May I say that Science News Letter is the most stimulating non-professional magazine I read? And its book listing brings me references often not available elsewhere for months." MAY V. SEAGOE, Associate Professor of Education, University of California, Los Angeles, California.

YOUR STUDENTS WILL BENEFIT AND SO WILL YOU . . . .

SCIENCE SERVICE offers to teachers its Science News Letter BUNDLE MAILING.

You can obtain 10 or more copies of Science News Letter each week, for use by students at home or in class, at ONE HALF the single copy price when all the copies come addressed to you and in one bundle.

Note some of the comments at the left. They explain why Science News Letter is popular with students as well as teachers. It brings the excitement of change and new developments, and thus makes learning easy (which reduces your teaching load).

For 7½c a copy, every science student you teach can have his own Science News Letter each week. Collect 33c a month from each and you will come out right.

Order your needs on the coupon below. Start your BUNDLE subscription now, and stop it whenever you like. Most teachers continue right up to examination time, and start again in the Fall.
